Reduced Pricing On Silver Oath Keepers Challenge Coins

Oath Keepers Silver ‘Challenge Coins’ In Time For Christmas Delivery

Oath Keepers is happy to announce that orders for our .999 Fine Silver ‘challenge coins’, each weighing one Troy ounce, are ready to ship immediately in time for Christmas delivery. Jim, our gear and merchandise store operator in Las Vegas, is offering these ‘challenge coins’ at a slight discount. While pricey when compared to one-ounce bullion prices on silver rounds, these ‘challenge coins’ represent a fairly limited edition specifically die-struck for Oath Keepers. The dollars Oath Keepers makes on the sale of these ‘challenge coins’ goes to our general fund and is used in our outreach mission to the police and military. The ‘challenge coins’ make great Christmas gifts and support this organization at the same time. Oh, and by the way – they’re beautiful and have that great precious metal feel when held in one’s hand.
