The hour is definitely getting late, America.

Why is the mainstream media still pretending like the case is still being made for arming the TSA, meanwhile the Federal Business Opportunities official government website is filled with agency contracts for TSA agents to train at firing ranges within a certain mile radius of major airports nationwide? And they have been for months now.

We're about to live in a country where we not only have a gestapo at our airports, but they are about to be armed and authorized to use deadly force.
