Testimonial: Ladies and Gentlemen,

I would like to introduce myself. I use the name given because he is my direct ancestor, a Revolutionary War veteran and a veteran of the Battle of Trenton. I owe him my most sincere devotion to the cause and document which he secured for generations of my family. I wish to address you now as my fellow sisters and brothers in this cause that holds so much importance to all of us.

It is imperative that as we begin this struggle to ensure that we enter the arena with moral pride. Pride in the way we handle ourselves with dignity and pride in this cause. Many will be watching us. Presently, our Bill of Rights is under attack, and we are losing our agricultural lands to Sorros and China. There are very rough times ahead. May God be at our side. “May we have faith that right makes might and in that faith shall we do our duty as we see it.”
