

CLICK HERE FOR ADVERTISEMENT RATES

Rally To Support The Miners!

0 0 0 0

April 21, 2015

The owners of the Sugar Pine Mine have called for a rally of support for not only themselves, but all miners. It is important that everyone who can show up for the rally does so, for the bigger the response, the better the likelihood of a peaceful, just, lawful solution to this matter. The BLM has a history of running roughshod over miners, ranchers and farmers Constitutional rights. It is time to stand up for ALL the rights of the miners, and others under the thumb of the BLM. Come to the rally. Show your support for these miners, and see they get their Constitutionally protected Rights secured. – Shorty Dawkins, Associate Editor

---

Rally to Support the Miners!

When: Thurs, April 23, 12:00 Noon

Where: BLM Office, 3040 Biddle Road Medford, ORThe miners will arrive to serve papers to the BLM in their ongoing attempt to find a legal resolution to the matter.

---

Mine spokesman Kerby Jackson said the miners were now calling for a “peaceful protest” at local Oregon Bureau of Land Management offices around Oregon on Thursday. Jackson said the owners were meeting with their attorney on Monday. “We are calling on all miners, loggers, farmers/ranchers and freedom lovers everywhere who are tired of government abuse to tell the BLM ... that they are sick to death of the way that they have been conducting themselves,” the Sugar Pine Mine website said. Mine spokesman Kerby Jackson said the miners were now calling for a “peaceful protest” at local Oregon Bureau of Land Management offices around Oregon on Thursday. Jackson said the owners were meeting with their attorney on Monday. “We are calling on all miners, loggers, farmers/ranchers and freedom lovers everywhere who are tired of government abuse to tell the BLM ... that they are sick to death of the way that they have been conducting themselves,” the Sugar Pine Mine website said.

Categories: All, Featured