

Tuesday, November 28, 2006

Informant Says He Was Asked To Lie

ATLANTA -- There is major fallout from the Atlanta Police shootout that left an elderly woman dead – officers are put on leave and the state and the feds are investigating. Atlanta's Police Chief announced both the FBI and GBI are investigating the shootout. Also, a narcotics team involved is now on paid leave and autopsy results reveal 88-year-old Kathryn Johnston was shot six times. More here

Posted by Stewart Rhodes at 10:52 PM

Labels: Police Abuse, Police State

Newer Post

Home

Older Post

Subscribe to: Post Comments \(Atom\)

