Iraq Veteran Speaks His Mind About the MIAC Report and DHS Smears of Veterans and Third Party Supporters as "Terrorists"

Below is a video from yet another Iraq War veteran sounding off with outrage at coming home after serving his country, only to be characterized as a potential terrorist simply because he is a supporter of Ron Paul (smeared in the MIAC Report) and simply because he is a veteran (smeared by the DHS report on "rightwing extremism").

He is plenty ticked, and once again we have to warn you that this video contains some strong language, but it is also well said, and rather humorous - enjoy.

As this veteran points out, the intent of such government "reports" is to chill speech and association - make people afraid to speak out and associate with those of like mind - and to demonize nearly anyone who dares to support the Constitution, dares to support the concepts of liberty, dares to support third party candidates, or dares to own guns - or dares to be a veteran.
