MSM Tries To Demonize Oath Keepers (As Usual)

InfoWars has several videos on their site from Ferguson, MO. In the first video, they show Oath Keepers walking with two of their reporters, Joe Biggs and Jakari Jackson. Oath Keepers offered to protect the two reporters, “covering their six”. The CBS affiliate in St. Louis made the ridiculous claim that Oath Keepers was hired by InfoWars to protect their reporters. This was patently false, and Rob Dew of InfoWars contacted the CBS affiliate, informed them of the mistake, causing the station to change their report.

Is it any surprise that a Main Stream Media (MSM) outlet would attempt to demonize Oath Keepers by portraying us as hired guns? It is just another attempt by the MSM to smear Oath Keepers. One of their tactics is to make an accusation against us, then step back from it when the truth is pointed out. The damage has been done, however, as the initial accusation is stuck in the minds of the public.
