I ditched my wife of 30 yrs. I connected with my old gal before I got married; for the past 3yrs we have been together sharing the same political views. You need to get this straight before you commit, really. The only marriage that lasts is one where you both are almost twins in your views of the world and events. I can speak from a solid base, just enjoyed our 46th year and we are in lock step, never a need for one to convince the other.]]>
