State Sovereignty

State Sovereignty By Elias Alias, editor * May 08 2013; updated March 01 2015 In our writings here at Oath Keepers the reader will encounter the word “state” used with different meanings. When the word uses a lower-case “s”, as in “state”, we are denoting, generally, a “government”. When the word uses a capital “S”, as in “State”, we are denoting a political entity, such as any of the “several States”. Michigan is a State; the government of Michigan
