Operation Gladio

In trying to make sense of the recent terrorist attacks in Paris, and to understand ISIS, and why it is that the NATO and the US helped start ISIS (and may, or may not, have lost control of ISIS), a look back at Operation Gladio is useful. The following BBC video, from 1992, is long, (2 1/2 hours), but worth the time to watch. Governments never tell the truth, unless forced to. Secrecy is the bane of all governments, for it allows extremists to do their machinations behind the walls of darkness. Gladio was all about creating chaos for a purpose, regardless of its original intents. Those running Gladio knew the weapon they had control of was powerful, and they didn't hesitate to use it. Many hundreds of innocent people died because of Gladio, and many people's lives were ruined. The public was terrorized, (as was the plan), and reacted as the Gladio leadership expected. Order out of Chaos. Today, the terror is greater, for the goal is greater; to bring in the New World Order, not by force, but by the people demanding it, because of the fear created by the terror.
