The best hope for mankind, The United States of America.

In January 1973, I raised my hand to the square and swore to Protect and Defend.

That oath is still in full effect. I will teach, I will reason, I will persuade, I will fight, I will man the barricades, I will take to woods and fight as the Patriotic Resistance. I will fulfill my oath. I will work with all my strength until my last breath to save this, the best hope for mankind, The United States of America.

God Bless you each and everyone

Note; We hope it never comes to that and part of our mission is to keep that from happening but we appreciate this man's resolve.
