EAGLE AWARD

Given to individuals who have given decades of their lives to protecting and defendng the U.S. Constitution and the New York State Constitution.

Robert Schulz

Robert Schulz

ROBERT SCHULZ is the Founder and Chairman of ‘We the People Foundation for Constitutional Education’ and ‘We the People Congress’. Mr. Schulz is receiving this award for devoting many decades of his life in protecting and defending both the U.S. Constitution and the New york State Constitution against attacks by politicians at for the federal and state level. He has been a constitutional activist for over 35 years with his main focus of holding government accountable to the Constitution, through the First Amendment Right to Petition. An engineer by training, Schulz has filed well over one hundred court actions on a pro se basis, against government actions he asserts are unconstitutional deprivations of individual liberty, including the New York UN-SAFE Act. In 2009, Schulz organized a “Continental Congress” which convened in November of that year and issued the “Articles of Freedom”.

LEADERSHIP AWARD

Given to individuals who, by their demonstrated leadership abilities in the Constitutional and Liberty movement, have been able to inspire and organize their fellow citizens to protect and defend the U.S. Constitution and the New York State Constitution against attacks by the state and federal governments.

Stephen Alstadt _ Scope

Stephen Alstadt _ SCOPE

STEPHEN ALDSTADT – the President and CEO of Shooters Committee on Political Education (SCOPE). As the head of SCOPE, Mr. Alstadt has provided the leadership necessary for SCOPE to be at the forefront of the battle against the New York UN-SAFE Act. The group is one of the main organizations in the grassroots fight against this unconstitutional law. SCOPE continues to advocate with the legislators for repeal of any and every part of N.Y. SAFE, and to block its funding. The individual members of SCOPE must also be commended for their dedication to protecting and defending the Second Amendment rights of their fellow American citizens.

NEW YORK CONSTITUTIONAL SHERIFF AWARD

Given to a New York State Sheriff who understands the grave implications of our eroding Constitutional protections under both our federal and state governments, including fighting against Second Amendment attacks under the New York Safe Act and fighting the designation of organizations like the New York Oath Keepers as right wing extremists simply because they oppose unconstitutional laws and acts by the federal and state governments.

Sheriff Thomas J. Lorey

Sheriff Thomas J. Lorey

SHERIFF THOMAS J. LOREY – Fulton County. Sheriff Lorey, a U.S. Navy veteran, has been in law enforcement for 45 years, beginning as a Police Officer with the Village of Mayfield in 1970. He moved over to the Gloversville City Police Department in 1972 retiring as a detective in 1992. After his retirement from the local PD, he joined the Fulton County Sheriff's Office. He took office in January of 1996 as Sheriff. Sheriff Lorey is also an active member of the Fulton County Oath Keepers and provides a space at the sheriff's facility for regular oath Keeper meetings. When Fulton, Albany, and Schenectady counties were chosen in January of 2015 to take part in the pilot program for pistol permit renewals. Five hundred "invitations," as the state government dubbed them, were to be sent to residents in each of the counties. Sheriff Lorey's response was "I'm asking everybody who gets these invitations to throw them into the garbage-that's where they belong," Fulton County Sheriff Thomas Lorey said at a meeting with Second Amendment supporters. "If you get a letter like that, don't do it," Lorey said. "Let's have everyone's permit expire on the same day and let them see what they are going to do with it." Sheriff Lorey exemplifies what it means to be a "Constitutional Sheriff" in that he is willing to protect and defend the people against the unconstitutional actions of the state and federal governments.

NYOK-Award-KarlMarx

Given to an individual who by his or her actions has done more to destroy the unalienable rights of the people, divide America by class and race, to destroy the constitutional limits on government as outlined in the U.S. Constitution, while at the same time implementing many of tenets of the 'Communist Manifesto' (as written by Karl Marx and Frederick Engels) into our Republic.

The Karl Marx Award Recipient Will Be Announced At The Dinner!
