Retired Navy Chief Electrician

Hello,

My Name is Craig T. Mayberry and I am a retired Navy Chief Electrician (SW). I have just come across your website or blog as it were. Do you have an organization? And what are you doing in general? I'd like to participate in any organization of Military, ex-military, retired military, police officers etc. who will be engaged in a fight should it become necessary to protect and defend the Constitution of the United States.

I have taken the oath many times and I intend to stand by it if I have to do it myself. I might end up being a very small puff of smoke but I won't be going out alone I guarantee you.

Thanks

Craig Mayberry
