

W E D N E S D A Y ,

Active Duty Marine; "I was told by the recruiter that there may come a day when I am ordered to fire on demonstrating US Citizens."

I am currently deployed on my yet another war tour.

We, the family all Department of Defense personnel, have never suffered such radical indignation as we do now. When I first joined the Marine Corps, I was told by the recruiter that there may come a day when I am ordered to fire on demonstrating US Citizens. I told him that I would not and under pain of death stop my fellow Marines who may be given to such actions.

I never thought that the day would come but now watching our Nations very soul being shredded at an exponential rate it becomes a very real possibility.

We stand the precipice of no return and must be vigilant of tyranny.

I pledge my oath.
