Disabled Veteran Speaks His Mind

I Thank God you have put together this website.

I am a disabled American patriot and sick of what's happening to our country. I have just recently sold my home and purchased a trailer to live in. My wife and I did not wish to be stuck in a city or prison camp where we would not fair very well. So we made a plan to move to a secret location away from the masses living city life. This was done because we feared all that is going wrong with our country. This was not our choice for retirement.

But to see your website gave me great hope, it rekindled my spirit and relit my patriotism. "Like I was watching a John Wayne Movie". I love this country and would die fighting for it. But when I thought I may have to face my own American brothers in arms it was too much to bear. So rather than fight against them I thought it would be best to leave the city. Thinking I will be very low on their radar. This is terrible, something I would have never bet on in a million years.

I thought one day I might have to pick up my arms once again and fight to protect my family and country from those seeking to remove our constitution and our human rights. I never figured into the equation that enemy would be here at home.

Then to see your website brought real tears to my eyes and again made me proud to be an American. To know there are brothers out there with the same concerns has lifted my spirits. That if we band together we can fight the good fight and regain our country and remove all that have infused their corruption and reinstate the truth that our flag represents. And never again let these words slip into darkness.

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, One Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

God Bless
