With a Salute! to Lyle Rapacki of Sentinel Intelligence Services for sending this in, I would like to offer it to Oath Keepers' readership on behalf of Oath Keepers. We are sure that all Oath Keepers have much for which to be thankful and we encourage all our members to draw close to family and friends on Thanksgiving Day to celebrate life's blessings. Let our thoughts rise to levels of peace not commonly achieved in a topsy-turvy world, and remember our heritage as Americans who are all equally born with "Unalienable Rights" to self-ownership and to all the blessings an individual may enjoy in the land of the free and home of the brave. We here at Oath Keepers national are thankful for the many thousands of members and supporters who have helped build and support the Oath Keepers mission to alert all who serve to the purpose embedded in the Constitutionally required Oath.

Oath Keepers is thankful for You!

Salute!

Elias Alias, editor

I'm taking this moment to put aside even for just a while, the grave worries of the world...

To join you in bowing our heads in gratitude and appreciation for our blessings.

I'm grateful...

... for family

... for friends

for you who helped make my life all the more rich

... for good health

... for our country and those who defend it

... for those who forge ahead to keep it

... for our founders who gave us a Constitution and laid the foundation for this exceptional nation

for the gift of being born in this nation

May God bless and keep America!

Have a wonderful and a truly blessed Thanksgiving!
