Testimony of a Naval Reserve Veteran

Dear Sirs

I have often wondered if I was maybe a bit of a weirdo because I still believed it was my solemn duty to keep true to the oath I made upon enlisting in the Naval Reserve in 1958.

By starting this organization you have made it possible for me to see that I'm doing finejust fine indeed.

I want you to know that I will stand with anyone who keeps the Oath. I pledge this on my life, my fortune and sacred honor.

Sincerely,
Louis Ruhl
