Active Duty Marine is an Oath Keeper

To whomever it may concern:

I am an active duty Marine coming to the waning days of my enlistment. After my contract is up I will pursue a career in Law Enforcement. I know that the prevailing attitude among some calling for revolution is that the military and cops are this generations jack booted thugs.

I was afraid of that myself and felt hypocritical to still want to be a police officer.

It felt relieving to find the Oath Keepers.

I am afraid that the powers that be will force a showdown with the people.
