NOTICE: Our Server Will Be Down At Midnight Sunday Dec.28 2014 For Two Hours

This is a notice I've received from Ed, our IT guy.

Our server will be going down around 12 am central time for server upgrades and maintenance, we expect the server to be down for two hours maybe a little more, during this time emails and the forums site will not be available , but the blog site will stay up. I thank you for your patience and understanding during this time of server maintenance.

Ed tells me that the server will only be down for a couple of hours or thereabouts. I am on the threshold of sharing some really good news with all our members. Very soon now we will have our brand new website up online. It is beautiful and I'm sure each of you will be very proud of the new look and the ease with which anyone can find just what they're looking for at Oath Keepers dot org.

Thank you each and all for your patience! And Happy New Year!

Salute!
