Testimonial of Combat Vet Who Served in Vietnam With the 3rd Battalion, 1st Marines (and Now Writes "Speculative Fiction" About Martial Law)

Gentlemen,

I'm a combat vet. I served in Viet Nam with 3rd Battalion, 1st Marines, so you know I took the oath a long time ago. I'm now living in Florida.

Only in my later years have I been made aware of how dangerous our government has become. I only hope the '10' will spread throughout the ranks of civil peace officers as well as military personnel.

My piece of speculative fiction at <http://reynoldswrapcap.blogspot.com/2008/06/state-of-siegeday-one.html> led me here. In fact, a reader from the U.K. asked if I knew about Oath Keepers!

Glad I found this site and I'm sure I can bring a few more Marines with me.

“Guardians of the Republic”.

I like the sound of that. I like it a LOT!

My respects,

Mike Florey
