Rocky states don’t work so well with sand points, but they sure will in Florida (anywhere there is or used to be Mississippi ‘silt’ or that Red Georgia Clay)!]]> <https://www.oathkeepers.org/real-goods-are-the-real-money/#comment-67868> Fri, 05 Feb 2016 04:00:05 +0000 <https://www.oathkeepers.org/?p=9875#comment-67868> I avoid a paper trail by just driving to whomever has the product in the amount I want and “truck it home” myself ...once home nobody can see what comes off the truck as we have no neighbors close enough see us ...let alone watch us unload a 24footer. lol.... Speaking of propane tis far better to bury a couple (or just one) of the bigger tanks (like 260 gallons or 500 gallons) to feed a propane (Samsung) stove/oven/convection plus a Generac “something” (a bit over 8kW)dunno how much 2 years would cost but I’m sure it would HURT! 😊]]> <https://www.oathkeepers.org/real-goods-are-the-real-money/#comment-67537> Wed, 03 Feb 2016 16:06:59 +0000 <https://www.oathkeepers.org/?p=9875#comment-67537> Clean water can be had as easily as setting up an above ground swimming pool with a cover and maintaining it.]]> <https://www.oathkeepers.org/real-goods-are-the-real-money/#comment-67505> Wed, 03 Feb 2016 06:01:01 +0000 <https://www.oathkeepers.org/?p=9875#comment-67505> Buy from a local source or gun show, or, if you have the money you can buy a freeze drying machine for around $4000. You could charge people to use it to make some of your money back.]]> <https://www.oathkeepers.org/real-goods-are-the-real-money/#comment-67432> Tue, 02 Feb 2016 21:17:36 +0000 <https://www.oathkeepers.org/?p=9875#comment-67432> @ Charlie Brown... try to find a mom & pop survival based business. Go in and tell them you want this or that and the quantity and it will be a cash purchase. The name you are using on this site will suffice. I do it a lot and it works.]]> <https://www.oathkeepers.org/real-goods-are-the-real-money/#comment-67426> Tue, 02 Feb 2016 19:35:13 +0000 <https://www.oathkeepers.org/?p=9875#comment-67426> How much is two yrs. worth of propane? Also I have prepped for years and am about out. I have wanted to purchase 25 yr. shelf life buckets, so I won’t have to keep buying and rotating. My question is how can you get $10,000 worth of freeze dried food shipped to your home without alerting the Guber’s. And about weapons have all of the above, but need a few anti-tank and helo shoulder fires, and a 30 or 50 cal. browning belt gun. No, but seriously I am trying to get around paper trail with freeze dry foods, any ideas?]]>
