Freedom is not free, it is bought with the blood of patriots

I so appreciate what you are doing and what you stand for.

God bless you all.

I am not a veteran. I did try to join the service in 1981, but they did not want me due to the fact I was married with two small children.

I am a citizen who believes in, will fight for, and die for,
the Constitution and the preservation of our freedoms.
Our ancestors fought and died so that we would be free today. I had the great blessing of growing up in a free country, but those freedoms are eroding, and in danger of being taken away if we do not stand together against this tyranny.

It is evident that the government fears us because they want so badly to disarm us. They can have my guns, but it will be after I've lost the fight. They can't go up against millions of military, veterans, law enforcement, and regular citizens.

I am with you all the way, and will contribute to help you keep going, even though I am unemployed.

Freedom is not free, it is bought with the blood of patriots, and if mine must be mingled in the mix, so be it. I do not fear death, for I go to a better place.

Thank you for having the guts to stand up and do the right thing.

God Bless you all,

Jeff Paulk
